“How to Work with Righteous Minds”

New York Times bestselling author Jonathan Haidt
October 19, 5:30pm, Bunker Auditorium, Green Center

Jonathan Haidt is “a scrappy, voluble, discerning patriot standing between the warring factions in American politics.”
—Washington Times

The Righteous Mind is “a landmark contribution to humanity’s understanding of itself.”
—New York Times Book Review

“A top global thinker”
—Foreign Policy
—Prospect

“Should be read by anyone who has the slightest interest in how political opinions are reached.”
—The Daily Beast

Why are we so divided? Adding reason and sanity to these polarized times, Jonathan Haidt’s ground-breaking theories of moral psychology explain the American culture war between left and right. His writings, TED talks, and research combine “cutting-edge research in the social sciences, evolutionary biology and psychology” (The Globe and Mail). His work has been highly acclaimed across the political spectrum by the Wall Street Journal, NPR, Science, The Atlantic, The Guardian, the Weekly Standard, and many others. He is the Thomas Cooley Professor of Ethical Leadership at New York University’s Stern School of Business.
