Reference Format acc to AIP Style Manual

1. Pls use AIP format for the reference list
   Title of each reference
   Inclusive pagination (first hyphen last)

2. Citations in text:
   Put a superscript after period or other punctuation:
   ... a recent study of the pinhole camera.\(^1\)
   a function of T,\(^2\)
   not
   a function of T\(^2\).

   Where possible put reference at end of sentence:
   ... a recent study of the pinhole camera.\(^1\)
   not
   ... a recent study\(^1\) of the pinhole camera.
   but
   ... studies by Young,\(^1\) Wood,\(^2\) and Strong.\(^3\)

3. Examples of references or endnotes in AIP style:
   Journal article:

   Magazine article:

   Book:
AIP does not specify how to cite Web page, but we may infer something like this (note author, title, exact URL, date accessed):

4. AIP capitalizes articles like this:
   "Imaging without mirrors or lenses: The pinhole camera and its relatives"

but books and reports like this:

   Optics and Lasers, including Lasers and Optical Waveguides

5. Square bracket style. Strictly speaking, not AIP. Note citation before punctuation:
   ... a recent study of the pinhole camera [7].

   List references in order of citation in text or

   ... a recent study of the pinhole camera [YOUNG, 1972].

   List references alphabetically
