12.0 DEFINITIONS

The terms defined in this section shall have the following meanings whenever they appear in these rules, unless the context in which they are used clearly requires a different meaning or a different definition is prescribed for a particular section or portion thereof.

Acceptable, with regard to a bid or proposal, means an offer submitted by any person in response to a solicitation issued by the School that is in compliance with the solicitation terms and conditions and within the requirements of the specifications described and required therein.

Adequate competition exists if a documented quote, competitive sealed bid or competitive sealed proposal has been conducted and at least two responsible and responsive offerors have independently competed to provide the School's needed goods or services. If the foregoing conditions are met, price competition shall be presumed to be "adequate" unless the purchasing agent determines, in writing, that such competition is not adequate.

Advantageous means an assessment of what is in the School's best interests.

An after-the-fact ("ATF") purchase occurs when a department makes a purchase for more than $4,501 before the Office of Business Operations issues a purchase order. For example, authorizing a vendor to begin work before the Office of Business Operations issues a purchase order, even though the department has submitted a purchase requisition, is an ATF. Similarly, obtaining goods or services on credit and subsequently submitting the invoice with a payment voucher is an ATF unless it is a purchase specifically allowed to be paid by payment voucher as set forth on the voucher document.

Alternative means a choice of a different good or Service that meets or exceeds the functional requirements of the base bid.

Award means the acceptance of a bid or proposal by issuance of a purchase order and may include the execution of a written agreement to cover performance by the vendor.

Base Bid means the minimum functional requirements of the good or Service.

Best value means the lowest overall cost to the School after taking into consideration costs, benefits, and savings.

Bid means a response from a vendor to an invitation for a bid (IFB).

Brand name specification means a specification limited to one or more goods or services by manufacturer's names or catalogue numbers.

Brand name or equal specification means a specification that uses one or more Manufacturer’s names or catalogue numbers to describe the standard of quality, performance, and/or other characteristics needed to meet School requirements, and which provides for the submission of equivalent goods or services.
Business means any corporation, limited liability company, partnership, individual, sole proprietorship, joint-stock company, joint venture, or other private legal entity.

Competitive negotiation means the process of discussion and issue resolution between a purchasing agent and a prospective vendor in order to arrange for the providing of a good or Service needed by the School. If more than one vendor is available for such negotiation, the needs of the School must be clearly defined in advance of any negotiations, via a specification that details fully the School's intended procurement.

Competitive reverse auction means a computer aided bidding process through which a pre-established group of vendors may post bids for a defined period of time and may change their bids as desired during the bidding period.

Contract means any type of School agreement, regardless of what it may be called, for the procurement or disposal of goods or services, and includes purchase orders.

Contractor means any entity that has a contractual relationship with the School for the provision of goods or services as allowed for under these rules.

Construction means the process of building, altering, repairing, improving, or demolishing any public structure or building or any other public improvements of any kind to any public real property. For the purposes of this code, "construction" includes capital construction and controlled maintenance, as defined in C.R.S. § 24-30-1301.

Cost-reimbursement contract means a contract under which a contractor is reimbursed for costs that are allowable and allocable in accordance with the contract terms.

C.R.S. means Colorado Revised Statutes.

Determination means a written procurement decision made by the Director of Procurement Services, or his or her delegatee, which is based on sufficient facts, circumstances and reasoning to substantiate the decision. Each determination shall be filed in the appropriate Purchasing Department file.

Documented quote ("DQ") means a process of soliciting informally for fulfilling the School's need for specific goods or services and receiving and evaluating vendor responses. The dollar limits for use of documented quotations shall be as stated in the section on small purchases and shall be conducted only by a purchasing agent.

Enhancement means components, services, or products that exceed the minimum functional requirements and would improve the quality of the goods or services being procured by the School.

Field purchase orders ("FPO") Pre-printed purchase orders not to exceed $1,000.00 that may be obtained from Shipping and Receiving.

Good means all property, whether tangible or intangible, provided by a contractor. The term does not include land, the purchase of an interest in land, water or mineral rights, workers' compensation insurance, or benefit insurance for School employees.

Hub zone ("HZ") means any business in a historically underutilized zone as defined by the United States Government Small Business Administration.

In-state business means:

A. A business that is authorized to transact business in Colorado and that maintains its principle place of business in Colorado; or

B. A business that is authorized to transact business in Colorado, that maintains a place of business in Colorado, and that has filed Colorado unemployment compensation reports in at least seventy-five percent of the eight (8) quarters immediately before bidding on a solicitation.

Invitation for bids ("IFB") means all documents, including those attached or incorporated by reference, utilized by the School for soliciting bids.

Local business means any business located within ten (10) miles of the Colorado School of Mines campus or that is a member of the Golden Chamber of Commerce or that has an office within the City of Golden.

Minority business ("MBE") means any business that is at least 51% minority owned or otherwise meets the U.S. Small Business Administration definition of a minority business and self certifies, is certified by the National Minority Business Council, or is certified by any Minority Chamber of Commerce or any entity of the federal government.

Option means choices of additional components, services, or goods that would serve to provide increased value to the School beyond the base bid.

Practicable means what may be accomplished or put into practical application; reasonably possible.

Procurement means buying, purchasing, renting, leasing, or otherwise acquiring any goods or services. Procurement includes all functions that pertain to the obtaining of any goods or services; including description of requirements, selection and solicitation of sources, preparation and award of contract, and all phases of contract administration.

Procurement Card means a form of company credit card that allows goods and services to be purchased and is designed to help the School maintain control of small purchases while reducing the administrative costs. The P-Cards are traditionally used by companies to replace paper invoices.

Procurement Services means staff that has formal delegated authority to execute contracts on behalf of the School. Procurement Services provides rapid analyses of the School’s spend and implements changes, negotiate with suppliers, and uses School’s best practices.

Proposal means a response from a vendor to an RFP.

Protestor means any actual or prospective bidder or proposer who is aggrieved in connection with the solicitation or the award of a contract and who files a protest.

Public entity means a state agency or institution of higher education or political subdivision of the State of Colorado, or of another state, the federal government or any combination thereof.
Purchasing agent means one of the School’s employees in the Office of Business Operations with delegated purchasing authority from the Director of Business Operations.

Request for proposals ("RFP") means all documents, including those attached or incorporated by reference, utilized by the School for soliciting proposals. RFPs are the commonly used name for competitive sealed proposals.

Resale means goods that will be purchased by a department and resold as-is. In the case of food, items that are bought and re-sold without being altered are resale items; items that are cut up, cooked, or otherwise processed before being re-sold are not resale items.

Responsible means a business that has the capability in all respects to perform fully the contract requirements, and the integrity and reliability that will assure good faith performance.

Responsive means an offer, with regard to a bid or proposal, that conforms in all material respects to the requirements contained in the solicitation.

Revenue-producing means a situation where a business pays money to the School as a result of any activity carried on by the business with the permission or agreement of the School. Situations that may be revenue producing will be evaluated by the Director of Business Operations on a case-by-case basis, and, if approved as revenue producing, will be documented in a written determination.

Sealed means that the bid or proposal must be submitted in a manner that:

A. Ensures that the contents of the bid or proposal cannot be opened or viewed before the formal opening without leaving evidence that the document has been opened or viewed;

B. Ensures that the document cannot be changed, once received by the School, without leaving evidence that the document has been changed;

C. Bears a physical or electronic signature evincing intent by the bidder or proposer to be bound. An electronic signature must comply with the definitions and requirements set forth in the government electronic transactions act, C.R.S. § 24-71.1-101 et seq. and its implementing rules; and,

D. Records, manually or electronically, the date and time the School receives the bid or proposal and that cannot be altered without leaving evidence of the alteration.

Services means the furnishing of labor, time, or effort by a contractor not involving the delivery of a specific end product other than reports which are merely incidental to the required performance.
Sole source procurement means a procurement made without competition, when competition is otherwise required.
