Department of Athletics
Head Strength and Conditioning Coach

Colorado School of Mines Department of Athletics invites applications for the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach position. This position will manage the intercollegiate sports' strength and conditioning program for all sports at Mines.

Mines is a public research university devoted to engineering and applied science. Located along the front range of the Rocky Mountains in Golden, Mines is just minutes away from Boulder and Denver offering a unique combination of mountain living coupled with large city amenities. With more than 300 days of sunshine a year, Golden is an ideal location to program year-round recreational activities. Mines is an NCAA Division II member and competes in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC). Mines' intercollegiate athletics program provides student-athletes with the opportunity to participate in 18 varsity sports. As one of 14 schools in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference, Mines provides an excellent opportunity and environment for both the scholar and the athlete. For more information visit us at: www.mines.edu.

Responsibilities: The Head Strength and Conditioning Coach will create in season, out of season and summer strength, conditioning and speed programs for all NCAA sport programs, as well as implement and coach all such programs. Duties also include oversight of logistics, weight room maintenance, budgets and purchasing, as well as assisting all head coaches with recruiting as needed.

Mines is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and educator that recognizes that diversity is crucial to its pursuit of excellence in learning and research. Mines is committed to developing student, faculty, and staff populations with differing perspectives, backgrounds, talents, and needs and to creating a richer mix of ideas, energizing and enlightening debates, deeper commitments, and a host of educational, research, and service outcomes. As such, Mines values candidates who have experience working in settings with individuals from diverse backgrounds. Minorities, women, veterans, and persons with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply.

Qualifications: Must have a bachelor’s degree (master’s preferred) and CSCS or SCCC certification by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association or the National Strength Coaches Association. Also required is significant progressive experience coaching at the high school or collegiate level. Applicants must demonstrate a commitment to academic and athletic excellence in a high school or collegiate environment. Must possess excellent interpersonal, organizational, and communications skills (verbal and written) in order to work with a diverse campus community. The preferred candidate will have experience as a coach in an academic institution and will have participated in intercollegiate athletics.

Compensation Starting salary will be determined by the qualifications of the selected applicant balanced with departmental budget availability, internal salary equity considerations, and available market information. Mines provides an attractive benefits package including fully paid health and dental insurance. Part of Mines’ mission is to create a family-friendly environment supported through our dependent tuition benefits, parental leave benefits, and dependent care assistance plan, as well as in special events, camps, and programming. For more information visit:  http://family.mines.edu/

Employment with Mines is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of a background investigation.
Employment with Mines is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of a background investigation.

How to Apply: Applicants must submit a cover letter, resume, transcripts of undergraduate and graduate degrees earned, and the names, addresses, phone numbers and e-mail addresses of three professional references to: Colorado School of Mines, Human Resources Office, Search #16-141120, 1500 Illinois Street, Golden, CO 80401, Fax: (303) 384-2025.

Electronic applications are encouraged and will be accepted at fsearch@mines.edu. If using this method of application, please put the search number as indicated above (in bold) in the subject line to ensure that your materials are properly forwarded to the search committee.

Review of applications will begin by July 14, 2016.