

FAMILY OF MINES BOOK AWARD FUND

2012-13 Application

The Administrative Faculty Council is pleased to solicit applications for the Family of Mines Book Award Fund.

The fund was established to help defray the cost of books for undergraduate students at Mines who are qualified dependents of employees of the Colorado School of Mines, the Mines Foundation, and the Mines Alumni Association.

Applications for the current academic year must be made by a qualifying employee and his/her son or daughter, by completing the form below and submitting it (either electronically or through campus mail) to Ginny Lee, c/o CCIT, no later than October 12, 2012. (Note: There are five awards available this year. In recent past years, the minimum amount awarded has been at least $200 each semester. Awards shall be made according to the guidelines and policies of the Office of Financial Aid at Mines. The current GPA requirement set by the Office of Financial Aid is a cumulative 2.5 or higher. This award, in conjunction with all other scholarships, cannot exceed tuition, fees and book expenses.)

The Administrative Faculty Council would like to take this opportunity to thank the campus community for its generosity and continued support. Questions about the book award may be directed to the Family of Mines Book Award Fund Committee at ext. 2122 or glee@mines.edu.
