Salutations!

On behalf of API, the Champions of Energy Committee, our event sponsors, and in recognition of Hispanic heritage month, we send congratulations on your nomination and selection as a 2017 Champion of Energy. Every day you are making a tremendous impact in STEM, the industry, and most importantly a huge difference in the community you live, work, and play.

It is leaders like you who constantly make us all proud. Your work in the community and industry is appreciated by your peers and we would like to take a moment from busy schedules to recognize your contributions and simply say Thank YOU.

Please join us for a brief reception in your honor, Friday, October 27, 2017 from 4:30-6:30pm at the Denver Athletic Club: Petroleum Rooms 1 and 2. Enjoy light refreshments, enjoy positive remarks on your behalf, and please feel free to invite members of your team and/ or family.
